

INDEX

TO THE

HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIRST VOLUME OF THE QUARTERLY REVIEW.

A.

- Abbot, Dr. Ezra, on the external evidence in support of St. John's Gospel, 379.
Abbott's, Dr., 'Triple Tradition,' 363.
Afghanistan, prospects in, 547.
Agnosticism, modern, 137.
Agricultural Labourers' Union, the, 302.
Agricultural produce in Ireland between 1826-1877, prices of, 257.
Altars, stone, 226.
Amhurst, editor of the 'Craftsman,' 320.
Art-needlework, the school of, 198.
Austria, ladies employed in, 182.

B.

- Bancroft, Mr. H. H., author of the 'Native Races of the Pacific States,' 57.
Barry, Canon, on the 'Manifold Witness for Christ,' 148—the development of revelation as recorded in the Bible, 149—the Gospel of the Resurrection, 150—positive evidences for Christianity, 150.
Beaconsfield, Lord, 119—a man of thought and a man of action, ib.—a man of letters and a statesman, 121—the most considerable Englishman since Lord Byron, 123—character of his novels, 124—described by Mr. J. McCarthy, 177.
Belgium, women employed in, 183.
Belief and Unbelief, 128—the basis for religious belief, 130—hypothesis to account for the phenomenal laws and sequences of the universe, 133—theory of gravitation, ib.—Bishop Goodwin on the 'Origin of the Vol. 151.—No. 302.

World,' 135—religious belief, ib.—modern Agnosticism, 137—Mr. Wace on scepticism and natural philosophy, 138.

Birds, British, Protection of, 100—the bustards of Norfolk, 102—times and seasons for killing, 103—cause of the 'grouse disease,' 104—destruction of sea-fowl, 105—'Sea-gull Preservation Act,' ib.—'Wild Birds Protection Act,' 107—Mr. Herbert's Select Committee, 109—Bill against birds' nesting, 110—duplicate names of birds, 113.

Boers, the, freedom from restraint, 551.
See Ministerial Embarrassments.

Bolingbroke, Lord, in Exile, 67—professes devotion to George I., 70—dismissed from his post of Secretary of State, 71—leader of the Opposition, ib.—escapes from London, 73—reasons for leaving England, ib.—double dealing, 74, 75—an attainted outlaw, 77—attaches himself to the Pretender, ib.—accepts the seals, 78—first interview with James, 78, 79—the Jacobite Ministry, 79—European sympathies in favour of the Jacobites, 80—endeavours to make them act in union, 81—scheme of operation, 82—dismissal, 85—interview with Lord Stair, 86—his 'Letter to Wyndham,' 88—acquaintance with the Marquise de Villette, 89—life at La Source, 90—his writings, 91—influence on Voltaire, 92—return to England, 95—his two characters, 99.

—, Literary Life of, 316—his influence on political history, 317—co-operates with the Pulteneys and Sir W. Wyndham, 320—establishes the 'Craftsman,' 321—interview with George I., 322—death of the King, 323—virulence of the Opposition, 326-328—the author of almost every opposition movement, 328—various articles in the 'Craftsman,' 329—effect of his writings, 330—at Dawley, 331—country life, 332—hospitality, 333—Voltaire, ib.—Pope, 333—336—reasons for leaving England, 337—settles at Chantaloup, 338—literary works, 338—340—Returns to England, 340—pays court to Frederick, Prince of Wales, 342—his 'Patriot King,' 342—344—departure to Argeville and return to England, 345—death of his father, 345—his conduct to Pope, 346—death of his wife, 348—illness and death, ib.—his philosophy, 350.

 Bradlaugh, Mr., on Land-Law Reform, 299.
 Brett, Sergeant, Mr. J. McCarthy's remarks on his murder, 168.
 Bright, Mr., on the 'Distribution of Land,' 297.
 Buller, Charles and Arthur, with Carlyle in Edinburgh, 411.

C.

Californian Society, 40—results of the Franciscan Mission, 42, 43—the 'Emigrants' Gap,' 44—'gold fever' in 1848, ib.—Sacramento, 46—San Francisco, 47—'Comstock Kings,' 48—Los Angeles, 63—Yosemite Indians, 65.
 Campbell, Lord, Life of, 1—parentage and early years, 2—education, 3—goes to London, 4—at the House of Commons, 5—studies for the Bar, 7—reporter for the 'Morning Chronicle,' ib.—entered at Lincoln's Inn, 8—visits Paris, 9—Tallien, ib.—reflections on reporting, ib.—on dramatic criticism, 10—engagement with Tidd, 11—called to the Bar, 13—'Reports of Nisi Prius Cases,' 14—horror of the Scotch accent, 15—takes lessons in dancing, ib.—his victory over Lord Ellenborough, 16, 17—admiration for Lady F. Webster, 17—matrimonial schemes, 19—disappointments, 21—marriage, 23—elected at Brooks's, ib.—invested with the 'silk gown,' 24—member for Stafford, 26—Solicitor-General, 26—the Irish Coercion Bill of 1833, 27—Attorney-General, 29—returned for Edinburgh, ib.—accepts a peerage for his wife, 31—measure for the abolition of Church-rates, 32—Lord Chancellor of Ireland, 33—the 'Lives of the Chancellors,' 34—Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, 35—'Lives of the Chief Justices,' 36—accepts the Great Seal, 38—death of Lady Stratheden, ib.—his death, 39—character, 39, 40.
 Carlyle, Thomas, Reminiscences of, 385—'Heroes and Heroism,' 385, 386—definition and examples of, 387—Mahomet's sincerity, 387—Cromwell, 388—Napoleon, 389—social philosophy, 390—his 'Science of Clothes,' 390, 391—on Parliament, 393—Howard, the philanthropist, 394, 395—Wilberforce, 396—picturesque style, 397—titles of chapters, ib.—his 'French Revolution,' ib.—'Frederic,' 398—popularity and eccentricities, 398, 399—'Reminiscences,' 399—neglect of self-examination, 400—death of his father, ib.—his education, 401—character of his father, 402—his progenitors, 403—David Hope, 404—Edward Irving, 404—407—at Kircaldy, 407—admiration of Gibbon's style, 408—in Edinburgh, 409—tutor to Charles and Arthur Buller, 411—'Life of Schiller,' ib.—translates 'Wilhelm Meister,' 412—Mrs. Strachey and Mrs. Basil Montague, 413—Procter, 414—describes Coleridge, 415—de Quincey, ib.—at Paris, 416—Talma, ib.—marriage, ib.—at Edinburgh, 417—interview with Jeffrey, 419—'German Literature,' ib.—'Mystic School,' 420—describes Mrs. Carlyle's influence with Jeffrey, 420, 421—meets Mr. Wishaw, 421—destruction of the MS. of his first volume of the 'French Revolution,' 424, 425—J. S. Mill and Mrs. Taylor, 425—'Darwin on Species,' 427—Charles Lamb, ib.—tendency of his writings, 428.
 —, Mrs., her influence with Lord Jeffrey, 420, 421—described by Miss Jewsbury, 423.
 Caucus, the, 294—its injurious system, 310.
 Cavour, letter from Panizzi to, 498.
 Chamberlain, Mr., on Disestablishment, 292—on land tenure, 297.
 Chester, Bp. of, his notes on the Acts of the Apostles, 383.
 China-town, at San Francisco, 58.
 Chinese population in San Francisco, 59—measures to restrain it, 60.
 Church Discipline Act, the, 234. See Ritualists.

Clerkenwell explosion, the, Mr. J. McCarthy's remarks on, 168.
 Coleridge described by Carlyle, 415.
 'Comstock Kings,' the, 48, 49. See Californian Society.
 Cook, Canon, on the identity of authorship of St. Luke's Gospel and the Acts, 367—introduction to the Acts of the Apostles, 370—the authenticity of the concluding verses of St. Mark's Gospel, 383, 384.
 Cosin, Bp., on the use of the surplice, 223.
 'Craftsman,' the, established by Lord Bolingbroke, 321.
 Craghts, the, in Ulster, 251.
 Cremer, Mr., on the House of Lords, 294.
 Cromwell's sincerity described by Carlyle, 388.
 Curates, their condition and number, 528-530—average of stipends, 531.

D.

Derby, Lord, on Reform, 165.
 Dowse, Baron, his charge in Galway, 244.
 Dramatic criticism, Lord Campbell's reflections on, 10.

E.

Ecclesiastical work exhibited at the Church Congress at Leicester, 191.
 Ellenborough, Lord, and Lord Campbell, 16, 17.
 Emancipation Act, the Russian, 437.
 Employment of Women in the Public Service, 181—in Switzerland, 182—Austria, ib.—Italy, 183—Russia, ib.—Germany, ib.—the Netherlands, ib.—Belgium, ib.—by the French Government, 184—as telegraphists by the English Government, ib.—clerkships in the Post-office Savings-bank, 185—salaries, 186—proposed changes for admitting candidates, 187—as domestic servants, as saleswomen, 188—powers of organisation in women, 190—ecclesiastical work, 191—literary women, 192—music, printing, 193—the stage, 194—art-needlework, 198—employment in the Civil Service, 199.
 Endowments of the Church of England in 1830 and 1880, 502—report of the Committee of Convocation, 503—cost and number of churches built and restored, 505—nett value of the various benefices, 506—number and value, 507—average of three years ending 1831, 508, 509—increase and change of annual incomes, 510-513—tithes, 513—pew-rents, 514—improved system of managing Episcopal and Capitular estates, 515—various grants and augmentations, 516, 517—endowments, 518—Queen Anne's Bounty Board, 518, 520—the Charity Commissioners, 520—Associations for providing better incomes for the ill-paid clergy, 521—sale of benefices by the Lord Chancellor, 522—parsonages, 522-525—resident and non-resident incumbents, 525—summary of returns, 526—private benefactions, 527—condition and number of curates, 528-530—average of curates' stipends, 531, 532.

Endymion, Lord Beaconsfield's, 115.
 Ephraem's exposition of Tatian's 'Diatessaron,' 379.

F.

F's, the three, 271, 560, f.
 Farmers' Alliance, the, 301—taking example from Ireland, 303—the three F's for England, ib.
 Fitzgerald, Mr. Justice, his address to the Grand Jury at Cork, 243, 244.
 Flanders, position of the farmers in, 262.
 Flaths, or Flaiths, the, in Ireland, 249.
 Forster, Mr., on the power of the House of Lords, 294.
 Foscolo, 472—Panizzi's relations with him, 472-474.
 Francisco, San, 47—the Pacific Hotel, ib.—climate and society, 48, 49—luxury, extravagance, and 'State pride,' 50, 51—religion, 51—revivals, 52—public services, 53—Easter Day at Lathrop, ib.—spiritualism, 54—benevolent and social societies, 55—an actor's funeral, 56—schools, State University, ib.—literature, 57—Chinatown, social status of its inhabitants, 58—increase of its population, 59—religion, 61—Buddhist temple, 62.
 Frederick Lewis, Prince, his despicable character, 341.
 Frederick William I., King, described by Carlyle, 398.
 French Government, women employed by, 183.

G.

- Germany, employment of women in, 183.
 Gladstone, Mr., his first Midlothian speech, 286—dangerous appeals to party hatreds and class jealousies, 289—on Disestablishment, 291—compulsory expropriation, 296, 297—the votes of working men, 306—tendency to decline in the public institutions, 308—influence of his reckless rhetoric, 541, 542.
 Godet, M., on M. Renan's fluctuations of opinion about St. John's Gospel, 374.
 Goodwin's Bp., lecture on the 'Origin of the World,' 135.
 Griffith's valuation, 258. See Ireland.
 Grouse disease, cause of the, 104.

H.

- Haywood, Mr. F., his friendship for Panizzi, 474.
 Hooda, 219. See Ritualists.
 Howard the philanthropist, Carlyle on, 394, 395.

I.

- Ireland, the Truth about, 242—cases of extraordinary offences in the counties of Clare, Limerick, and Cork, 243, 244—compared to the distractions of Albania, 244—apathy of the Government, 245—present policy, 246—Mr. O'Connor Power on 'Landlordism,' 247—state before the English Conquest, 248—social condition, land tenure, 249—the Flaiths, 250—system of tenure in Spenser's time, 250, 251—the Creaghts, 251—husbandry, ib.—ploughing by the tail, ib.—live stock, 252—houses, 252, 253—population, 253—improvement under English law, 254—issue of loans, 255, 256—deposits in savings-banks, &c., 256—prices of agricultural produce, 257—'Griffith's Valuation,' 258—profits of farming, 259, 260—condition of Ulster, 261—the Irish tenant compared with the Flemish farmer, 262

- condition of the richer class of tenants, 263—value of land, 264—Mr. Parnell on the 'National Question,' 264, 265—public opinion, 266, 267—possibilities of remedial legislation, 268—provisions of the Land Act of 1870, 269—the three F's, 271—Ulster custom, 271, 272—the effect of fixity of tenure on the value of land, 273—free right of sale, 274, 563—Mr. Mahoney on tenant right, 275, 276—peasant-proprietary, 277—analogy between the Agrarian questions in Russia and Ireland, 429—the Land Bill, 553, f.
 Irving, Edward, 404—master of the mathematical school at Haddington, 405—use of the rod, ib.—meets Carlyle, 406, 407—his wife described by Carlyle, 409—in Glasgow, ib.—London, 410—popularity, ib.—expulsion from the Scottish Kirk, 418.
 Italy, ladies employed in, 183.

J.

- Janson, Mr. J., on peasant allotments in Russia, 445—increase in the price of land, 450—'extraneous earnings,' 451—decrease of cultivation and livestock, ib.—yearly tenants, 452—summary of his investigations, 455.
 Jeffrey, Lord, described by Carlyle, 419—admiration for Mrs. Carlyle, 420, 421.
 Jewsbury, Miss G., describes Mrs. Carlyle, 423.

K.

- Kosheleff, M., on the insufficient area of allotments in Russia, 456.

L.

- Lamb, Charles, described by Carlyle, 427.
 Land-Law Reform League, the, 299.
 Lathrop, Easter Day at, 53.
 Los Angeles, 63—cultivation and society, ib.—Fenian fête, 64—church of St. Gabriel, ib.
 Lowther Lodge, exhibition of works of art at, 191.

M.

- Macaulay, Lord, described by Lord Campbell, 35.
 Mahoney, Mr., on tenant right in Ireland, 274-276.
 McCarthy, Mr. Justin, History of our own Times, 156—difficulties of contemporary history, 157—want of chronological arrangement, 159—the interest of classes, 161—on Mr. Salomons's claim to take his seat in 1851, 163—the Hyde Park riot, 164—on Coercion in Ireland and the suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act, 166, 167—the Clerkenwell explosion, and the murder of Sergeant Brett, 168, 169—the Irish Church, 170—arguments in favour of a State Church, 171—the Irish Church question, 171, 172—bias in favour of Dissent, 173—grants for National Education, ib.—slight notice of the Conservative Ministry, 175—abuse of Lord Beaconsfield, 177—the African policy, 178—literary criticism, 179.
 Mérimée's correspondence with Panizzi, 496, 497.
 Metternich, Prince, on the probable effects of a revolution in England, 304.
 Mill, J. S., and Mrs. Taylor, described by Carlyle, 425.
 Ministerial Embarrassments, 535—home prospects, 536—the right of a minority, ib.—Conservative legacies, 537—the obligations of an English statesman, 538—electioneering invectives, 539—votes of the majority, 540—influence of Mr. Gladstone's reckless rhetoric, 541, 542—national self-defence, 542—International law, 543—dualism of opinion in the Cabinet, 546—prospect in Afghanistan, 547—abandonment of Candahar, ib.—advance of the Russians, 547—549—their process of organization, 549—the Transvaal, 550—the Boers, 551—Dutch population, 552—Ireland, 553—the Land Bill, ib.—purchase of land, 554-556—rights of property, 556—'fair rent,' 557-559—the Land Court, 560—increase of litigation, 562—position of the landlord, 564-566.
 Montague, Mrs. Basil, described by Carlyle, 413.

N

- Napoleon I., Carlyle's contradictory character of, 389.
 Neapolitan prisoners, the, 489—Panizzi's efforts for their release, 491-494.
 Netherlands, the, ladies employed in, 183.
 New Testament, the Speaker's Commentary on the, 352—extent and value of the introductions, 354—English Church History and criticism little known by German critics, 355—different views of St. John's Gospel, 356—M. Renan's criticism, ib.—popular acquaintance with the Holy Scriptures in England, 356, 357—the 'Four Gospels,' 358—St. Peter's summary of the Gospel message, 359—variations in the narratives of the Evangelists, 360—parallel passages in St. Mark and St. Luke, 361—various criticisms and opinions, 361, 362—the 'Triple Tradition,' 363—the Resurrection, 365—authenticity of the Gospels, 366—St. Luke's Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles, 367, 368—St. Matthew's and St. Mark's Gospels, 369—Canon Cook's introduction to the Acts, 370—Archbishop Thomson's introduction to the first three Gospels, 370-372—St. John's Gospel, 372-375—Canon Westcott's summary 376—and introduction, 378—Dr. Ezra Abbot's summary in support of St. John's Gospel, 379—Tatian's 'Diatessaron,' 379, 380—Strauss on the four Gospels, 381—Bishop of Chester's notes on the Acts, 383.

P.

- Panizzi, Sir Anthony, Life of, 463—his exterior and character, 464, 465—important position in European politics, 465—early life, ib.—his person described, ib.—head-centre of the Modena conspiracy, 466—escapes from Brescello, 467—at Lugano, Geneva, 469—escapes to England, 470—poverty in Liverpool, 471—relations with Foscolo, 472-474—friendship for Mr. F. Haywood, 474—Brougham, 475—nominated to the British Museum, ib.—Assistant-

Librarian, 477—Keeper of the Printed Books, 479—Principal Librarian, 480—principles of administration, 481—increase of the Library, ib.—internal government of the Museum, 482—naturalized, 483—relations with Mazzini, 484—Thiers, 486—revisits Italy, 487—at Brescello, ib.—the Neapolitan prisoners, 489—494—visits Northern and Central Italy, 495—intercourse with Emperor Napoleon, 495, 496—corresponds with Mérimée, 496—498—with Cavour, 498—at Biarritz, ib.—failing health, 499—tenders his resignation, 499, 500—letter to Mrs. Haywood, 500—illness and death, 501.

Parliament, Carlyle on, 392, 393.

Parnell, Mr., his speech at Waterford, 264—his policy, 265.

Parochial Mission Women, the Society of, 191.

Parsonages, provision of, 522.

Peasant Proprietors, 428. See Russian Land Laws.

Pew Rents, 514. See Endowments.

Ploughing by the tail in Ireland, 251, 252.

Pope's friendship for Lord Bolingbroke, 333—obligations to him, 334—his 'Essay on Man,' 335, 336—Bolingbroke's minutes and suggestions, ib.—Bolingbroke's libel on him, 345—7.

Population of Ireland, 253.

Power, Mr. O'Connor, on Irish 'Landlordism,' 247.

Procter, B. W. (Barry Cornwall), described by Carlyle, 414.

Public Worship Act, the, 235. See Ritualists.

Pulteney, William, 318—co-operates with Lord Bolingbroke, 319.

Pusey, Dr., on Vestments, 226.

Q.

Queen Anne's Bounty, 518—520.

Quincey, De, described by Carlyle, 415.

R.

Renan's, M., criticism of the 'fourth Gospel,' 356—identity of authorship of St. Luke's Gospel and the Acts, 367, 368—authenticity of St. John's Gospel, 374—376.

Rents in Ireland, tabular statement of, 256.

Reporting, Lord Campbell's reflections on, 9.

Revolutionary Party, the, 285—their opinion of the Whig element in the Cabinet, 287—provincial newspapers the interpreters of 'national opinion,' 288—Radicalism more and more Democratic, 289—Mr. Gladstone's appeal to party hatreds and class jealousies, 289—main grievances, 290—Disestablishment, 291—the House of Lords, 292—advanced Liberals, 293—the Caucus, 294, 310—compulsory expropriation, 296—298—household suffrage, 301—'Farmers' Alliance,' 301—303—'Agricultural Labourers' Union,' 302—Radical influence, 304—obstruction, 308—injurious effect of the Caucus, 310.

Ritualists, the, and the Law, 201—corresponding disregard of Church authority in the Evangelical or Low Church and the Ritualists, 204—use of the surplice, 205—of the gown, 206—a definite code necessary for the minister of the Church, 208—threat of secession, 209—the parochial system, 210—forming a congregation, 212—symbolizing the 'real presence' in the Eucharist, 213, 214—eastward position, 216—cutting the bread, 217—sacrificial vestments, 219—hoods, ib.—coloured, or black decorated stoles, 219, 220—shape of the surplice, 220—the cope, ib.—the 'Advertisements,' 222—Bishop Cosin, 223—his explanation of the eastward position, 224—Bishop Wren, ib.—Dr. Pusey on vestments, 226—stone altars, ib.—communion tables, 227—the biretta, 228—defiance of the law and the Queen's and Archbishops' Courts, ib.—'Submission of the Clergy. Act,' 229—the 'Bidding Prayer,' 231—ordination vow, 232—the Church Discipline Act, 234—Public Worship Act, 235—237—inhibitions, 238—Mr. De la Bere, 240—defects of the present law, 241.

Robinson, Miss, her Soldiers' Institutes at Portsmouth, &c., 190.

Russia, ladies employed in, 183—advance of, in India, 547—fraternizing with Oriental races, 548—process of organization, 549.

Russian Land Laws, the, and Peasant Proprietors, 428—analogy between the Agrarian questions in Russia and Ireland, 429—condition of the serf before the emancipation in 1861, 429

—tendency to migrate, 431—no admixture with other races, 432—advantage of amalgamation of races, 433—similarity to the Irish in disposition and improvidence, ib.—number of working days, 434—religious polity, ib.—priesthood, ib.—landed gentry, 435—small number of merchants and manufacturers, 436—disproportion of landowners to tenants and agricultural labourers, ib.—provisions of the Emancipation Act, 437—division into zones, ib.—‘Peace Arbitrators,’ 438—homesteads and peasant allotments, 441—capitation rents, 442—Government advances to ex-serfs, ib.—‘Redemption Dues,’ 443—enquiry into results, 445—complete failure and semi-starvation, 446—provincial land-banks, 447—destruction of forests, ib.—dissolution of family communities, 448—communal and cantonal organization, 449—village mayors and ‘scribes,’ ib.—middlemen, 450—absenteeism, ib.—deserted villages, 451—yearly tenants, 452—three-field system, 453—result of Mr. Janson’s enquiries, 454, 455—new taxes, 457—increased exportation of corn, 458—imports of tallow, wool, &c., 459; proposed remedies, 459, 460—migration and emigration, 462.

S.

Sacramento, 46. See Californian Society.
Salmon, Dr., on the ‘Triple Tradition,’ 363—on the Resurrection, 365.
San Francisco, 47. See Francisco.
Santa Rosa, Count, 470—his letters to Panizzi, 471.
Scherer’s criticism on Carlyle’s popularity, 398, 399.
Schönberg, Dr., on the employment of women, 197.
Strachey, Mrs., described by Carlyle, 413.
Strauss, on the four Gospels, 381.
Stephen, Mr. Leslie, criticism on Disraeli’s novels, 121–123.
Stoles, coloured, or decorated black ones, 219.
Surplice the, use of, 205—when worn, 219—Bishop Cosin on the use of, 223.
Switzerland, employment of women in the postal and telegraphic departments, 182.

T.

Tallien, described by Lord Campbell, 9.
Talma, described by Carlyle, 416.
Tatian’s ‘Diatessaron,’ and Armenian Version of Ephraem’s exposition of it, 379, 380.
Thiers, M., intimacy with Panizzi, 486.
Thomson, Archbishop, on the parallel passages of St. Mark and St. Luke, 361, 362—harmony of the three Gospels, 369—summary of the criticism on St. Matthew’s Gospel, 370, 371.
Tithe Commutation Act, the, 513.
Transvaal, the, terms of peace, 500.
See Ministerial Embarrassments.

U.

Ulster, condition of, 261—Custom and Tenant-right, 271.

V.

Valbert, M., on the employment of women in France, 189.
Vasilchikoff, Prince, on the causes of impoverishment in Russia, 455.
Vestments, sacrificial, 219. See Ritualists.
Villette, Marquise de, 89—marries Lord Bolingbroke, 90.
Voltaire’s acquaintance with Lord Bolingbroke, 92—its influence on his writings, 92–94—at Dawley, 333.

W.

Wace, Professor, on the ‘Foundation of Faith,’ 128—on the conflict between faith and science, 138—the divine authority of Christianity, 140—the faculty of faith, 141, 142—its healing and consoling power, 143—its action in the special department of morality, 143, 144—the Sermon on the Mount, 145—error and superstition, 146—Anglican Christianity, 147.
Walpole, Sir Robert, his rejoinder to an article in the ‘Craftsman,’ 321—his political character, 324—accusation of his enemies, 325–328—the excise scheme, 327—decrease of his popularity, 330.

Webster, Lady Frances, libel against, 17—Lord Campbell's admiration of, 17.
Westcott, Canon, summary of the criticisms on St. John's writings, 376—his exhaustive introduction, 378.
Weston, Miss, exertions for sailors, 190.

Wilberforce, described by Carlyle, 396.
Wishaw, Mr., described by Carlyle, 421.

Y.

Yosemite Indians, the, 65. See Californian Society.

END OF THE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIRST VOLUME.

*Bd. Rev.
Gen.*

